MARIAN LOIS LAWSON
(NÉE SIBBALD)

Marian died on December 31, 2010 at the age of 83 years. She was the daughter of the late Hilland Sibbald and Agnes Scott. Marian spent her childhood in Inglewood, Ontario. She attended Brampton High School and graduated from the Macdonald Institute (University of Guelph) and the University of Toronto. She settled in Toronto, and shared 53 years of marriage with her husband Bruce who predeceased her by 24 days. Marian gave a lifetime of love and support to Bruce and her children, Lynne, Doug and Nancy, encouraging and helping each pursue their own chosen goals. An active Garden Clubber who was grateful for its rewarding experiences, she competed in flower arranging competitions, took an interest in restoring historically significant gardens, and served in many roles, including Co-chair of the Casa Loma Garden restoration and President of The Garden Club of Toronto. Marian chaired the Spadina Project for which she accepted the National Award of Honour, bestowed for the first time by the Heritage Canada Foundation to a Garden Club for outstanding contribution to the conservation of Canada's built heritage. Marian cherished many longtime friendships and travelled widely, sharing an interest in world travel with Bruce. In addition to her three children, she leaves her siblings, Ted, Jack and Lois Sibbald and Nancy May and their families. Her friendship, support, and sunny disposition will always be cherished by her family and many friends. She was a beautiful, elegant and gracious lady who will be missed.

Condolences to the family may be sent, care of Lynne Lawson, Lawson LLP, Richmond-Adelaide Centre, 120 Adelaide Street West, Suite 700, Toronto, Ontario M5H 1T1. A memorial service to honour the lives of Marian and her husband, Bruce will be held in the spring of 2011.

ZEPHANIAH 1

- 3 God comes from Teman,
And the Holy One from Mount Paran.
His splendor covers the heavens,
And the earth is full of His praise.
4 His radiance is like the sunlight;
He has rays flashing from His hand,
And there is the hiding of His power.
5 Before Him goes pestilence,
And plague comes after Him.
6 He stood and surveyed the earth;
He looked and startled the nations.
Yes, the perpetual mountains were shattered,
The ancient hills collapsed.
His ways are everlasting.
7 I saw the tents of Cushan under distress,
The tent curtains of the land of Midian were trembling.
8 Did the LORD rage against the rivers,
Or was Your anger against the rivers,
Or was Your wrath against the sea,
That You rode on Your horses,
On Your chariots of salvation?
9 Your bow was made bare;
The rods of chastisement were sworn.
You cleaved the earth with rivers.
10 The mountains saw You and quaked;
The downpour of waters swept by.
The deep uttered forth its voice,
It lifted high its hands.
11 Sun and moon stood in their places;
They went away at the light of Your arrows,
At the radiance of Your gleaming spear.

- 12 In indignation You marched through the earth;
In anger You trampled the nations.
13 You went forth for the salvation of Your people,
For the salvation of Your anointed.
You struck the head of the house of the evil
To lay him open from thigh to neck. Selah.
14 You pierced with his own spears
The head of his throngs.
They stormed in to scatter us;
Their exultation was like those
Who devour the oppressed in secret.
15 You trampled on the sea with Your horses,
On the surge of many waters.
16 I heard and my inward parts trembled,
At the sound my lips quivered.
Decay enters my bones,
And in my place I tremble.

THE BOOK OF ZEPHANIAH

- Day of Judgment on Judah
- 1 The word of the LORD which came to Zephaniah son of Cushi, son of Gedaliah, son of Amariah, son of Hezekiah, in the days of Josiah son of Amon, king of Judah:
2 "I will completely remove all things
From the face of the earth," declares the LORD.
3 "I will remove man and beast;
I will remove the birds of the sky
And the fish of the sea;
And the ruins along with the wicked;
And I will cut off man from the face of the earth," declares the LORD.
4 "So I will stretch out My hand against Judah
And against all the inhabitants of Jerusalem.
And I will cut off the remnant of Baal from this place,
And the names of the idolatrous priests
along with the priests.
5 "And those who bow down on the housetops to the host of heaven,

- And those who bow down and swear to the LORD and yet swear by Milcom, 6 And those who have turned back from following the LORD,
And those who have not sought the LORD
or inquired of Him."
7 Be silent before the Lord God!
For the day of the LORD is near,
For the LORD has prepared a sacrifice,
He has consecrated His guests.
8 "Then it will come about on the day of the LORD's sacrifice
That I will punish the princes, the king's sons
And all who clothe themselves with foreign garments.
9 "And I will punish on that day all who leap on the temple threshold, Who fill the house of their lord with violence and deceit.
10 "On that day," declares the LORD,
"There will be the sound of a cry from the

Parenting. It can be such a joy — and a pain in the behind. The scolding part for instance. Don't enjoy it, but it has to be done when the need arises. But what do you do when you see other people's children misbehaving?

FIONA HUGHES

I've come to the conclusion it's a balancing act, but I wish more adults would speak up when they witness bad behaviour or hear foul language in the public domain. Though I'm loath to use the "kids today" excuse, children seem less concerned now about using bad language or behaving badly when their parents aren't around. It's as if the other grown-ups in the vicinity are invisible.

Sometimes, the problems are easy to solve. For example a few years back, when some older kids (they were all of 10 or 11 years old) were swearing as if they were in a Quentin Tarantino movie at a playground, I asked them to tone it down in a toned-down voice. "Hi there. Can you guys stop swearing? There are lots of little kids here and I don't want my children to hear these words and start repeating them." (What I really wanted to say was, "Look you little #@&%." Can you stop with the vulgar potty mouth." Didn't think that would be very smart, though.

They were momentarily stunned that I deigned to speak to them, but they acquiesced. Some even looked embarrassed, but they were probably the ones not swearing. Mentioning the effect their language had on the younger kids seemed to carry more weight than if it upset me or any of the other parents. In this case, it was mostly grandmothers who spoke little if any English. Perhaps that's why they thought they could curse an unfettered blue streak.

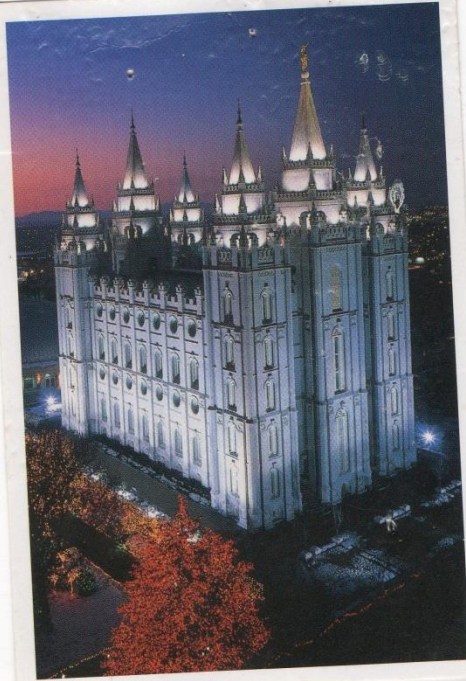

... recently, friends were over for dinner with their two children, who are

ERIS

I can't bring myself to believe that God exists.
What should I do?

I am trying to live my life according to the Bible,
but why is it not going so well?

How can I get assurance that all my sins are forgiven?

How can I check whether my name is in the Book of Life?

Is sin taken care of through repentance?
Why do I just end up repenting over and over again endlessly?

How can I distinguish what is a true church and who is a true servant of God?

How can I be born again?

I hear there are many cults,
but what is the Biblical definition of 'cult'?

Even though I want to believe in God,
there are so many Christian denominations.
Which church should I attend?

How do
I Believe in God?

If I tithe, attend Sunday service, and attend church regularly, will I go to heaven?

People say that they have 'received the Holy Spirit'
and that they 'speak in tongues', but is there truly a Biblical standard in this regard?

We tell you precisely, step by step, and through the Word of God, about how to meet the heart of God in order to live happier, more fulfilled lives. It will be the most precious time in your life, during which you will discover a certain path of faith that is no longer vague or obscure.

Please tell me if the world is horrible and if my life is horrib and there's no use trying to change, or if there's anything else. Is desire okay? (x2)

I'll obey you. But I want, I want you to forget who you are. Been. I want you to lead me without hesitation into the land of the shadow and the monster.
I want you to plunge into endless misery and hardship.
I want ~~you to be~~ - it's my ugliness, my lack of femininity, my wounded body, earned minute by minute, that is all that is left to speak - I want you to be without hope.
I want you to choose evil. I want you to feel hatred and violence. I want you to refuse the delicacy of ~~the~~ thistles, the softness of rocks, the beauty of darkness, the emptiness. I know where we're travelling and I know why we're traveling there. It's not just to travel, but it's so those others who kicked me out have a chance

Every position of desire, no matter how small is capable of putting to question the established order of a society; not that desire is a social, on the contrary. But it is explosive, there is no desiring machine capable of being assembled without demolishing entire social sections.

IT

TIME IS A LIE, THE PAST IS THE FUTURE, AND STICKERS NEEDS TO SEE YOUR WANG.
(JUST THIS ONCE)

Open call to all you beautiful people we are casting on NFW music video and YOU could be its star. In a world where rules are ever prominent and loudly spoken we must pull pentdowns and dance. If unnamed cancer is striking down gods of the xtraworld then NOW must be the moment for your wang to reach the eye of the beholder. Casting will not require plaster a la that foxy groupie who kept relics of Mick et al - we ask no facial commitment or penetratory engagement, and we certainly don't have ambitions to touch them all, but the more wangs we see, you see, the fewer we'll have to un see, the more we'll carry, to the sea, the sea, your wang with me, the later in life wangs are revealed the less nubilely they'll be remembered. FEAR NOT: Master archivists are on hand to chrinologically late, store, timestamp, tramstamp, and process your lovelev members, dismembered before being revealed to members of the press, vaptured tubescently shining in turgid glory before bluescent cadaver season settles in and only a coroner could care less.

This is a treat. It's great to be here folks.

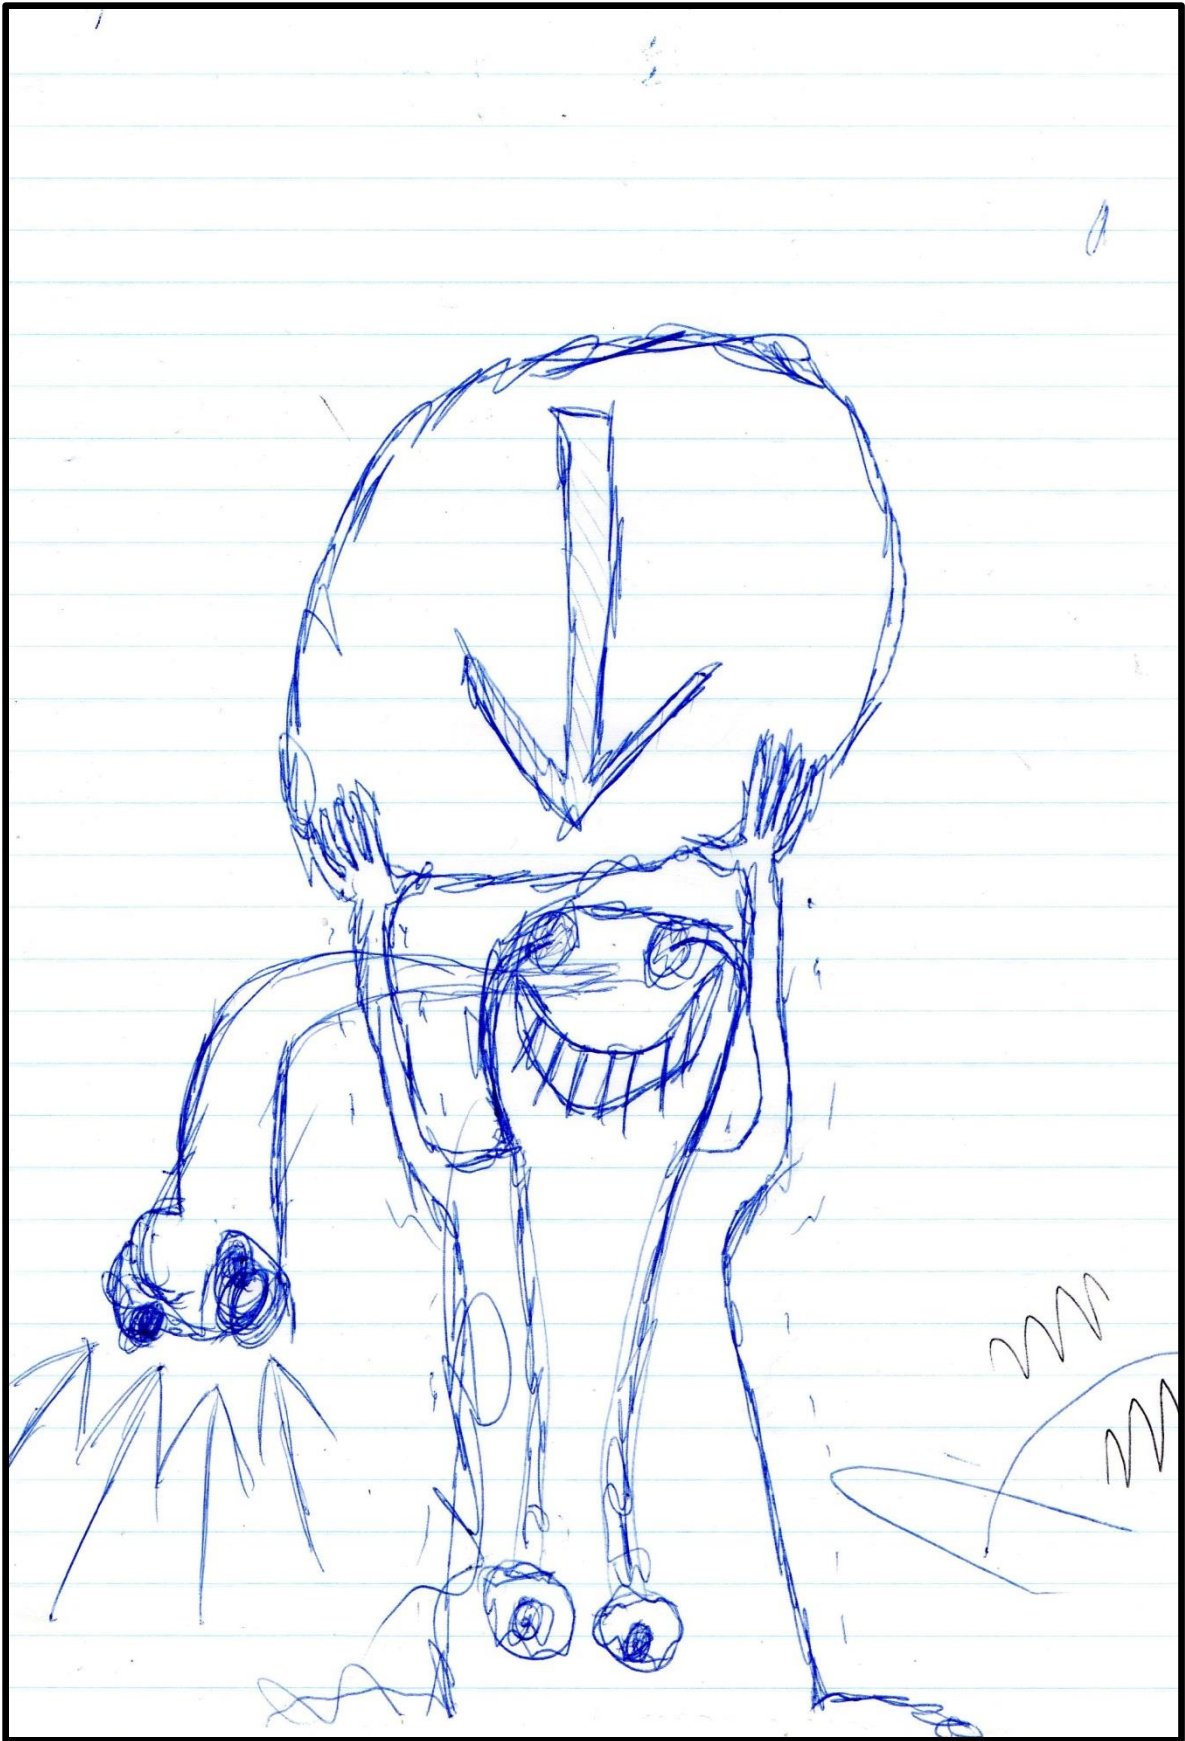

This party isn't that great. I have been to better parties that have been much greater.

I have read all the books and they are good books. Out of all these books I would say they are all these my favourite.

~~But~~ All these books are the same, they're all fitted rules. So I mean are you reading rules or rules? And if you've read one don't you sort of know what the other one is about?

Suggested follow-up questions

1. Q: Ms Jones you said that the suspect had an average "face", describe the suspect's "face" to me?
2. If Ms Jones mentions a feature of the face such as eyes, nose, mouth, etc., you may then use these words and ask for more detail, e.g., Q: Describe the suspect's eyes, nose, or mouth?
3. If you want information about an area of the face or body Ms Jones has not mentioned (it may not be in her memory) simply refer to that general area of the body, e.g., Q: Describe the area below or above. (whatever has been described by the witness). Do not refer to the specific feature name until the witness has first referred to it.

- Corrupt politicians operate where the rules are weak.
- There are simple, proven rules to stop them.
- We need to make sure those rules are present in all governments, all the time.
- We cannot expect a corrupt government to prosecute itself.
- We must collect those rules. Together we'll stage the largest one day march in Canada, then we'll insist the rules are installed in all Canadian government.

Help Us Stop Crime in Government

NOTE-TAKING HINTS CLEAR-CONCISE-CORRECT-COMPLETE

Always follow laid down policies and procedures

- Police Officers are legally required to keep notes as an essential part of their duties. The officers' notebooks are very important documents. It is not acceptable to copy notes from another officer's notebook.
- The purpose of Report Writing is to pass on information, provide a permanent record, provide a total picture, assist the legal process. The original note-taking forms the basis for all future documents and the investigations that follow. Good notes help the police officer to remember/recall the important details of each separate occurrence and prevent confusion.
- Only one notebook should be used at given time. Pages should not be torn out.
- All entries should be made in black ink, neat and legible. Write readable notes so future readers will easily understand. It is essential to separate distinctive, specific facts/details which can be verified, from opinions and conclusions, be objective and well organized. Make your notes at the earliest reasonable opportunity. When in doubt, write it down. Try to keep sentences short, this makes them easier to read and understand. Avoid using abbreviations that are unclear.
- Name correctly, include any nicknames or aliases, Race White, Black, Hispanic, Aboriginal, Oriental,
Sex state the person's sex,
Age date of birth, approximately xx to yy years of age,
Hair colour, length, style, texture, absence of hair,
Eyes exact colour and shape, uses glasses or contacts,
Complexion dark, fair, sallow, ruddy, freckles, moles, pimples,
Other features physical/mental condition, scars, tattoos, CLOTHING if needed for identification, any other outstanding features.
- Road and Weather Conditions type of surface, road width, shoulder width, presence of curbs and ditches, road grade, unusual conditions such as chemical spills and debris, road markings, other. Weather conditions affect roads and driving, such as, rain, sleet, hail, snow, high winds, bright sunlight, darkness, fog, smoke, other.

- The International Date Format is yy/mm/dd, you should follow laid down policy. Some note-taking policies require entering the Date on the top of each page.
- Enter time reporting for duty, calls to station, visits, time absent, record of arrests, record of accidents, record of fires, record observations of individuals, motor vehicles and questionable premises (found insecure or entered), record names, addresses and descriptions of persons interrogated, record time reported off duty, record weather conditions. The left columns on the pages are for Times, Dates, Key Words depending upon instructions given. Times can be record as AM & PM or using the 24 hours, follow laid down policy.
- It is a good rule not to leave blank spaces on a page. Fill in every line, since someone might suggest that other blank, spaces were left and filled in later. It is best to draw a line through blank spaces and initial.
- When a correction is necessary, draw a single line through the error, initial the line, and make the correction.
- Rough notes should not be written on the back pages of the notebook and no information of a personal nature should be written in the notebook.
- WHO WHAT WHY WHEN WHERE
Who was involved and obtain complete particulars (full name, address, telephone number) of those involved (victim, complainant, witness, suspect),
What happened, a progressive sequence of events in a chronological order, what did you see/do, what was said, actions of involved persons,
ONE AT A TIME separate witnesses, obtain witness statements, request witness to sign statement, how did it happen (report facts only),
Why did the occurrence happen,
When did it happen (day, date, time of incident, day, date time of incident), when did you arrive, speak to those involved and when did you leave describe environmental conditions,

Intro (LBJ on keys with car horn) (under red line?)

I hate the people, the normal people. I hate my friends and the people I'm supposed to like. I hate my partner.

Knowing them all fucks with who I am and what I mean.

I can't even relate to people who are half normal and kind of well adjusted. People who aren't even rich, or ingenious and really good looking, but just regular people with boyfriends and friends and part-time jobs and shitty apartments. People with unspectacular but normal, typical, boring but functional lives. I know, I'm not fucking stupid. I know what I sound like. I can barely stand even listening to myself right now. My thoughts revolt me. I want to puke. You know what's worse? They are nice sensitive. educated peoples I hate that most. They should be real good friends for me but I can't ~~even~~ let myself relax and get close to them.

... of what's wrong with me.

I've got absolutely no interest in pleasing the general public, I don't want to, because largely I think they're scum. They make me feel physically sick. That's my opinion of about 99% of people you find out in the street, who don't know a fucking thing, and I don't want to please warts like that, the people and their godawful attitudes.

SEEKING PROMOTERS OF ITEM69

(A MOVEMENT PROMOTING ASSERTIVENESS).

Mature young assertive ladies are being sought to further the agenda of ITEM movement which has the mandate of Human empowerment (with a heavy emphasis on woman empowerment) through an open assertion of all rights to which men are deemed entitled including but not limited to socioeconomic dignity, freedom from psychological, economic & physical abuse, and to contentment of life with equal access to a variety of physical, sexual-spiritual pleasures and life quality.

1. Building up of a sorority style solidarity of women aiming to halt psychological, economic & physical abuse through mutual support among women and soliciting help of men in this objective.
2. Promotion of general physical health and sexual liberation.
3. Educating women on their health from feminine perspective aiming towards early breast and cervical cancer detection.
4. Educating and training women and men to the objective of entitlement to a pleasurable sex life
5. Improving connection between the adolescents and the seniors to curb the rapidly growing menace of senior social sequestration.

[You must be over the age of 18 to become a promoter]

What I want to do is put something else out that I like and whoever else likes it will find it. And if nobody else in the world liked it, I couldn't give two shits - if it doesn't sell who gives a fuck - the point is - that ~~is~~ is what you wanted to do.

And you'd better hope that someone wants to be president - you dig what I am saying? But who in the hell would want to be can you conceive of what kind of brain would ~~want~~ want to lead those fucking nuke scoops out there? Because there is no communication with them, if you took a horseship and beat them, they still wouldn't understand what the hell you're talking about, because there is no intelligence there. And I'm laughing like crazy 'cause I think when you stand up and say "well, what have we got here?" you're going to find out you have a bunch of bullshit there too. Makes no difference what they call you - I call you the boo scoop, you're the commander of mmscam, what does that mean? You still have to live with what you're doing, ya' dig? And you have all kinds of sex paranoias and deceiving, lying cheating things that you all play, and you push them off onto some one else and say they're no good and that we've got the bad guys locked up over here and we're the good guys. And in reality you're all a bunch of scurvy PC pieces of shit. But that's on the one hand, and here's where Abanaxas comes in - if they didn't have the love to do it, then who in the fuck would?

AAD Flying Squad Meeting Agenda
Saturday, March 18th, 2017

1. Opening

- 1.1 Acknowledgment
- 1.2 Check ins (go around)

2. Brief Introduction

2.1 What is the flying squad?

- Ask people at the meeting of their understanding of the flying squad

2.1 Briefly review Basis of Unity (maybe just read it and see if anyone has edits)

Joining the On the Line flying squad means that you agree to the following organizing principles:

- This is a working group. We need a working list of people who will show up and follow through when they are able.
- Agree on some basic politics. You don't have to agree with everything AAD stands for, but you must agree to not contradict the core principles of our work. The most important of those principles (for the sake of this project) is to support communities in struggle by honoring their leadership in the different forms that it appears. This means an active effort against carrying oppressive power dynamics regarding class, gender, race, sexuality, ability, and status into these community struggles. The AAD basis of unity is here:
<http://www.stopdisplacement.ca/about/basis-of-unity/>.
- The On the Line Flying Squad is a direct action group. This means participants in this group will come into confrontation with the police and the state. It is crucial that when this confrontation takes place that members of the On the Line Flying Squad can trust that you will not put any of the organizers or community members in danger. This means that you have read and agree to the AAD direct action checklist. The individuals involved in the AAD core collective as well as the communities we are involved with are vulnerable to police violence. The OLFS does not believe that the police protect and support marginalized communities and for this reason a requirement of being part of the Flying Squad is the refusal to collaborate with the VPD, the RCMP, and other police organizations.

On the occasion of their BIRTHDAYS
we celebrate

BILLY & TROY

Talented individuals whom I am glad to know & love, were born this line of year, from winter of warmth to guard off harsh chills, swaddled in denim epically stylish from the zygote stage, these two intrepid STICKERS blazed trails of glory from vine towns in Seattle and Reno, respectively, parented well but not mightily, they educated themselves in the global university of complexity and set to forgettable, so fresh you can't even catch an aerial view from your center of kindness flying directly overhead. Watch as they invent selves so righteous and radical you get tan in the ultra violet of their thoughts. Back with me in the amnesic juice bar of loving tender shredding good friendship, fun times, peace, and joy. Happy Birthdays

I'd like to start this off by apologising for the fact I wrote this set in one night due to constant crying. I guess I "forgot" that the estrogen has turned me into a poor brain. I'd also like to recognize I might have overlooked some of the dysphoria felt by the cis dudes in the audience, so I'd also like to apologise for talking over you. Tonight I'd therefore like to start this set off with a trigger warning - my dick. Let's keep those dangerous rape sticks out of here, am I right?

This one is for all the feminists in the audience - fuck you.

Noise* → C, C[#], D[#] 26

Oh, the world was different last summer, living in a theatre of pain, day and night, making love to the idea of you, not to you yourself. And you realize that actually in many years you can become quite an idea of yourself and not yourself - because you've forgotten who yourself was, because all day every day - every fucking moment - it's being this, being that, you don't have time to know who you are. And that's why it's so painful when all this stops, because you're sitting at a table eating breakfast and there is someone sitting there and you're thinking ~~um~~ - who the fuck are you - because you haven't got a common connection.

And we playact prewritten roles etched onto the very horizon of being-in-the-world. And semantic oversaturation and our own willing ignorance has caused such severe barriers to communication that we become farcical representations of ourselves. And it doesn't make you a good person to tell someone that ~~they~~ you won't love them until the love themselves because loving yourself is hard.

Why are you here?

- We're here to send a message to Justin Trudeau that he can't ignore: Climate leaders don't build pipelines.
- Tailor to speaker's experience: I have signed petitions, gone to rallies and public consultations, and met with politicians. And now I'm willing to put my body on the line to say no to this tar sands pipeline and yes to renewable energy.
- Personal reason (save orcas, call from Grand Chief Stewart Philips...).

What do you hope to accomplish?

- I want to send a clear message to the Prime Minister: You can't approve this pipeline if you are serious about your commitments on climate change and Indigenous rights.

Factoids

- This pipeline would carry 590,000 barrels per day of diluted bitumen from the tar sands, enabling a dramatic increase in production.
- A bitumen spill is almost impossible to clean up.
- Environment Canada estimates Kinder Morgan could increase upstream GHGs by up to 17 million tonnes a year, which would largely negate the anticipated 18 million tonne reduction from Trudeau's proposed carbon tax.
- It would increase tanker traffic 7 fold. Adding 400 oil tankers a year in Haro Strait will add massively to the noise that is already making life difficult for killer whales dependent on quiet oceans to effectively seek their prey.
